
JOIN US FOR THE NEWS

KFJC is looking for people who want to bring news and information to the Foothill College Community.
The Broadcast Journalism course (Film-TV 82, formerly Broadcast 96), gives practical training in researching and writing stories, conducting interviews, reporting from the field or on-air, and producing newscasts.
Headline news and features on entertainment, politics, sports, science, or businesss are all covered, with an emphasis on local community information not usually found on other stations.

Other than an eligibility for English 1A,
no previous training is required.
See Registrar's Office for more details.
